Village of Quenby Courthouse The Village of Quenby Courthouse is a historic courthouse building located at Quenby, Pocahontas County, West Virginia. It was designed by architect Charles M. Johnston and built in 1867. It is a three-story, brick building in the Greek Revival style. It features an ornate parapet, a profiled end pavilion, a central gable, and a cupola. It has served as a courthouse until 1933, and thereafter was home to a drugstore until 1989. It was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 2001. In 2009, the building was destroyed by fire. Here's an exclusive new footage from Netflix's binge-worthy dark comedy, Master of None. It's exploring the world of dating and romance from a gay perspective, as Dev takes out a guy he meets at a bar and interviews him about how to land a man in bed. Let's just say he has a pretty successful first attempt. I'm actually really glad
